EASTER.—Easter this year will be on April 12. The earliest date on which Easter can possibly fall is March 22, but this has not occurred since 1818, and will not occur again until the year 2000 has been left well behind. The latest date for Easter is April 25. This was the date in 1886 and will be again 1943. Besides, in 1903, Easter will fall on April 12, in 1914, 1925, 1936 and 1998—five times in one century.

FORT BLUNDER.

How It Was That Uncle Sam Built It on British Soil.

Curious indeed is an American fort which was built on British soil. How many can guess what fort it is and where located? The name is Fort Montgomery, and the location is on an island near the foot of Lake Champlain, about half a mile northeast of Rouse's Point, N. Y.

A short time ago, when traveling in that part of the country, I saw this fort and asked the name of it. "Why, that is Fort Blunder," said my informant. "Did you never hear of it?" I confessed ignorance, and he explained matters.

It seems that after the war of 1812 the government of the United States became convinced that the entrance to Lake Champlain should be guarded by a fort strong enough to engage any British fleet which might attempt to force an entrance to the lake, and so Fort Montgomery was constructed at a cost of nearly $500,000. It was an immense fortification for those days and was arranged for three tiers of guns.

Just about the time it was completed the joint surveyors fixing the line between the United States and Canada came along and, after doing a good bit of figuring, announced that Fort Montgomery was on Canadian soil. The northern boundary of New York state was the forty-fifth parallel, and this fort was several hundred yards over the line. Work on the fort came to an immediate standstill, and the matter was made the subject of a special treaty.

It was decided that in view of the fact that the United States had not intentionally encroached on Canadian soil the forty-fifth parallel should be bent a little out of its course at this point so as to include the fort. That is why the fort is called "Fort Blunder." It was never armed and has never been occupied by more than one or two men.—New York Herald.

An Emperor's Strange Fancy. Strange fancies have taken hold of some men regarding the manner in which their bodies were to be disposed of after death and the ceremonies to be observed at their funerals.

The great Emperor Charles V. had the curious idea of celebrating his own funeral. Shortly before his death he caused a tomb to be made in the chapel of the monastery of Estremadura, to which he had retired after his abdication, and on its completion he was carried to it as though dead. Placed in a coffin and accompanied by a procession, he was borne along, while chants were sung, prayers said and tears shed. After the solemn farce was over he was left alone in the chapel, where he remained a short time before rising out of the coffin.

Too Good Highlanders.

Some years ago a vote was taken among the men of a certain highland regiment (at that time not wearing the kilts) to find out how many would be in favor of wearing the highland costume.

In due time the sergeant major appeared before the commanding officer with the result of the voting.

C. O.—Well, sergeant major, how many are in favor of the kilt?

S. M.—Two men, sir.

C. O.—Only two. Well, I'm glad there are at least two good highlanders in the regiment. What are their names, sergeant major?

S. M.—Privates Patrick O'Brien and Michael Rooney, sir.—Scottish American.

Struck For $16 a Day.

In San Francisco in 1949 clerks in stores and offices had munificent salaries. Five dollars a day was the smallest stipend even in the custom house, and one Baptist preacher was paid $10,000 a year. Laborers received $1 a hour. A pick or a shovel was worth $10 and a butcher's knife $30. At one time the carpenters, who were getting $12 a day, struck for $16.

AMUSEMENTS.

PRINCE OF PILSEN.

The comic opera, "Prince of Pilsen," was presented at the Grand Opera House, in this city, on Thursday night, before a large and most appreciative audience. No better performance of a similar character was ever seen in Paris. One song alone will make it famous, "The Song of the Cities." It's success was assured from its conception.

The music of the opera is tuneful, ranging from classic to "catchy."

The company was one of unusual excellence. "Hans Wagner," the Cincinnati brewer, in the hands of John W. Ransome, was certainly a clever bit of character work and at times he brought down the house.

—Richard Golden and a good supporting company appeared at the Grand, on Saturday night, in the comic opera of "Foxy Quiller." The attendance was not large, but those who ventured out in the threatening weather were well repaid, as the performance was one that pleased and gave general satisfaction. Golden has a reputation among the comic opera stars that places him in the front rank and he never fails to furnish any amount of fun and enjoyment for his auditors.

"BLACK PATTI" TROUBADOURS.

The Black Patti Troubadours are coming to town on Thursday night. This organization has had seven years of phenomenal success.

Black Patti, leads the singing forces in the rendition of sweet Dixie melodies and a new opera bouffe creation entitled "A Festival of Parisian Melody," while John Rucker, "The Alabama Blossom," Bobby Kemp, Leslie Triplett, Slim Morgan, Ed Green, Muriel Ringgold, Emma Thompson sustains the fun interest with the co-operation of the merry melodious contingent. Ten high-class vaudeville acts.

The prices are as follows: Dress Circle 75c; Parquette 50c; Balcony 35c; Gallery 25c. The Balcony is reserved for colored people, and seats may be secured at Borland's this morning.

Low rates to Louisville via the L. & N., March 11 and 13, account grand spectacular performance of Ben Hur, at Macauley's Theatre, the greatest play on the modern stage. The rate for the round-trip from Paris will be but $2.65. Tickets sold at above rates will be good going only on the morning trains and are limited for return day following date of sale. Tickets for the performance will cost $2.00 per seat on all lower floor and $1.50 and $1.00 per seat in balcony. Seats can be secured through local Agents upon deposit with him of above amount, and patrons at local points will be given preference on purchase of seats in advance. Seats should be ordered as soon as possible.
